The Rosen Group Supports The Starting Point, Inc.

The Starting Point, Inc. of NJ is an education and referral center that provides help, healing, and hope for many types of people. In the very beginning, 39 years ago, it occupied a dilapidated row home in South Philadelphia that served as a half-way house for those trying to recover from alcohol addiction. Today it provides all types of assistance to about 300 people each week-all kinds of people from all walks of life-who seek help for a wide range of mental, emotional, and spiritual issues .

This past year has been difficult for The Starting Point, and the future is going to provide even greater challenges. The organization is working to make sure that it can keep its doors open and that the usual programs and meetings are offered, but it need the support of the community more than ever.

With your and my support, I hope that The Starting Point can continue to offer hope, strength, and encouragement to anyone who might need it, regardless of their financial means.

If you are interested in learning more about this organization and/or making a contribution to support its work, visit www.startingpoint.org. You can also find the option to make a donation if you like.
