A Powerful Team- How CEOs and Their HR Leaders are Transforming Organizations

We are excited to announce that we are moving into the next phase of Scott Rosen's latest book. As we move closer to production, we wanted to give you some insight as to what you can expect from this exciting publication.

The book is co authored with David Pinette of Challenger Gray and Christmas and John Touey of Salveson Stetson.

It will consist of interviews with CEOs and their CHROs and will get to the heart of what makes an effective partnership between the CEO and CHRO, and what benefits the organization derives from that relationship.

With so much negativity surrounding the value of HR, we believe strongly in elevating the credibility of our function and feel this is a powerful way to do so.
